

Want a Specialist Pronunciation Teacher on your staff?

JANCO Educational Services is pleased to announce the availability of pronunciation specialist, renowned author Ann Baker, to teach pronunciation/accent reduction in your college.

Ann’s classic pronunciation books “Ship or Sheep?”, “Tree or Three?” and “Pronunciation Pairs” are still popular after thirty years. In 2006-2008 CUP published her completely rewritten new editions of all these books, whose international popularity continues.

Ann is now responding to the renewed interest in teaching pronunciation. She will be available on Mondays in 2010 and can be booked to teach specialist pronunciation classes in your college.

In the 4 hour teaching day Ann can teach up to 8 x ½ hour lessons or 4 x1 hour lessons with a selection of classes in your college.

Option 1 Teachers can simply observe Ann teaching their class as part of their professional development.

Option 2 Teachers can team teach with Ann on the first visit and on the second visit team teach again, and be observed and advised conducting similar lessons.¹

Option 3 Ann can teach while your teachers are released for other duties such as testing new arrivals.

This specialist teaching service is available through JANCO Educational Services and can be arranged through the normal relief booking and payment system.²
